

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Dear Regulatory Professional,

The Regulatory Affairs Professionals Society connects regulatory professionals like you with the resources you need to meet the challenges of your daily work and develop your career.

Gain insight on hot topics and issues in Regulatory Focus, network with peers on Regulatory Exchange, update your regulatory knowledge through Online University or earn Regulatory Affairs Certification (RAC), the only professional credential in the industry. Membership in RAPS means you have access to the inside track of regulatory information and contacts.

Apply now for the coming year, or choose the two-year membership plan and save 5%.

If we can answer any questions about RAPS membership, please call +1 301 770 2920 or email raps@raps.org.

Sincerely,
The RAPS Membership Team

Tax Notice for U.S. Members

The Regulatory Affairs Professionals Society is an organization that is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (US). As a RAPS member, you are entitled to tangible benefits the fair market value of which is equal to or exceeds the amount of the dues payment. Thus, no portion of your dues payment qualifies for a charitable tax deduction, but the full amount of your dues payment may qualify as a tax-deductible business expense. The full amount of your voluntary donation to the RAPS Foundation may qualify for a charitable tax deduction.

RAPS MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATION STATEMENT

RAPS ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Active Members of RAPS have full membership privileges, including full access to Regulatory Focus and Regulatory Exchange, discounts on RAPS educational courses and publications and open access to RAPS communities and chapter events. In addition to full voting rights, active members may also hold office within a RAPS board or standing committee.

In order to qualify for RAPS Active Membership, applicants must meet at least one of the following qualifications:

- Engaged as a professional working in the regulatory process (as a regulatory professional in industry, government, academic, regulatory consulting, regulatory law)
- Engaged as a professional working in related scientific, clinical or engineering areas involved in the health product life cycle (e.g. R&D, preclinical, clinical, manufacturing, QA, QC, clinical care, including researchers, engineers, clinical professionals)
- Engaged as a professional managing a health product-related organization.
- Engaged as a professional in a scientific, clinical or engineering discipline and seeking to enter the profession at a biomedical, health product-related, academic or clinical organization.

RAPS ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Associate Members of RAPS have full membership privileges, including full access to Regulatory Focus and Regulatory Exchange. Associate members do not have voting rights and cannot hold office within a RAPS board or standing committee.

In order to qualify for RAPS Associate Membership, applicants must meet at least one of the following qualifications:

- Do not qualify for RAPS Active Membership.
- Provide professional business services or products to regulatory and related professionals.
- Have a bona fide interest in the regulatory affairs profession and/or in the health product regulatory process.

RAPS STUDENT MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Student Members of RAPS are full-time students. Student Members have membership privileges, including full access to Regulatory Focus and Regulatory Exchange. Students also receive additional discounts on conferences over the already reduced RAPS Member prices. Students are not eligible to hold Chapter offices, committee positions, or serve on the board of directors. RAPS student members may be asked to provide verification of full-time student status during the course of their membership term. RAPS reserves the right to decline membership if the applicant is unable to provide documentation of full time student status.
