

REGULATORY CONNECTIONS

RAPS Member Recruitment Drive: 1 Sept–30 Nov 2026

Strengthen our Community.
Share the Value.
Earn Rewards.

How it Works

Invite a colleague to join RAPS and help expand the global network that regulatory professionals rely on for trusted knowledge, meaningful connections, and career growth. When you help recruit a new member, you earn rewards and recognition for helping grow our profession.

Why Participate

Strengthen OUR Community	Share the Value	Earn Rewards
Bring more perspectives, experience, and expertise into the global RAPS community.	Connect colleagues with the resources, learning, and relationships that support all regulatory professionals across all career stages.	Earn rewards and professional visibility as a RAPS supporter and community builder.

It's Easy to Participate

1. Visit raps.org/recruit or scan the QR code to get your recruiting toolkit, view how your rewards add up the more you recruit, and get started.
2. Share raps.org/connect-engage/membership with someone who would benefit from RAPS membership.
3. Get rewarded when they join!

"I joined [RAPS] to continue expanding my knowledge of the evolving regulatory landscape, while also connecting with peers across the industry. For me...it's about building relationships, exchanging ideas, and contributing my own experiences in a way that can support others. I value being part of a community that encourages growth, collaboration, and shared learning."

- Ilona Barskaya, RAPS Member
